Criminal Solicitor (with/working towards LAA Supervisor Status)

We are a small high street firm with offices in Dorking and Ash Vale in Surrey, and a heart to serve those around us. The Firm has been established for over 40 years, initially as David Cowan Solicitors, and since 2015 as Cowans Solicitors LLP.

We are looking for a criminal solicitor to support our Criminal Team, in sharing our large volume of own client case work. Therefore, whilst an individual who has the ability to obtain duty slots in their own right would be advantageous, this is not a requirement of the role.

LAA supervisor status is a requirement of the role, but we will support you to quickly help you obtain the status if you do not yet have it.

The role may be attractive to a newly qualified solicitor, who is looking for a Firm to support them in attaining duty solicitor status, or a duty solicitor seeking a new challenge at a different firm.

The role is a minimum of 2 days per week, so we welcome candidates who are seeking a part-time or a full-time role. Out of hours work always available, and paid accordingly, but candidates would not be obliged to take this up.

The role will require you to be:

- Proactive
- Able to deliver excellent client care
- Computer/IT literate
- Willing to cover both Surrey and Hampshire matters, although preferences will be considered
- Able to man out of hours phones on a rota'd basis

Start date: Immediately (or as soon as possible)

Contract: Fixed term or permanent contracts will be considered

Hours: Part-time or full-time considered

Salary: Market rate

Holiday: 25 days (plus bank holidays), rising to 26 days after one year, and at regular intervals thereafter, up to 30 days.

If you are interested, please send your CV and covering letter to David Cowan (david@cowanslegal.co.uk), or get in touch with David if you have questions before applying."

The LCF Appointments Register is a service provided for LCF members.

Legal Secretary

The Opportunity

Edward Connor Solicitors uniquely combines the expertise of a fully regulated law firm with the gospel aims of a Christian charity. We understand that churches and Christian organisations want to be biblically faithful as well as legally compliant.

As the demand for our 'Christ-centred legal expertise' continues to grow, we are seeking a full-time Legal Secretary. You will be providing important support to our fee earning staff, as well as excellent client care, through secretarial services and administrative assistance.

Just as a body relies on all of its parts to function well, our excellent client service relies on the excellent support of our administrative staff, and this role is therefore a vital one in our gospel mission. If this exciting opportunity interests you, we would be delighted to hear from you.

This role has an occupational requirement that the job holder is a Christian in full agreement with our Basis of Faith.

Applications

Please email info@edwardconnor.com or call 01858 411568 to request an application pack or ask for further details.

Applications close at midnight on 23rd January 2022, but please send your application as soon as possible, as we may close applications early for the right candidate.

Trustee Position, WorldShare

WorldShare is looking for one or more capable, energetic and committed people to join our Board of Trustees. This is an exciting opportunity for you to partner with ministries across the world as they practically share the love of Jesus, and use your skills to serve the poor, vulnerable and marginalised.

About WorldShare

WorldShare partners with local Christians in the world's neediest places by supporting their vision to bring about spiritual and social transformation. Together with our four sister organisations around the world (Partners International; USA & Canada, WorldShare Australia and CNEC Singapore), we are connected with 108 ministry partners in 58 countries.

WorldShare (and its sister organisations) began in 1943 out of a vision for China. Duncan McRoberts a missionary from Northern Ireland, witnessed the horrors of war in China. His desire was for the Chinese people to be free and to know Christ and that this would take place through Chinese leaders themselves, not expatriates. WorldShare continues to work in a similar way today, across the globe; resourcing and supporting local ministry partners who select, train and direct workers involved in mission.

'To see the faith and action of our partners at work in often desperate situations is humbling. It is also inspiring to see the change that can be made with the Gospel in action.' – trustee, Richard Cartlidge

About the role

WorldShare is an interdenominational organisation which is seeking to strengthen and expand its board membership, skills and diversity.

WorldShare is governed by a Board whose members are the Directors of the Company and Trustees of the Charity, who will support the growth of the organisation through discussion, prayer and godly decision-making. All prospective trustees should be wholeheartedly committed to the aims, ethos and values of WorldShare. The board meets four times per year, but trustees do give of their time outside of these meetings.

'The ability to share my experience of different contexts and countries where WorldShare is involved has been rewarding for me, and I hope for WorldShare also!' – Chair of trustees, Kevin McKemey

Who we are looking for

We are seeking individuals, who share WorldShare's vision and values, have a heart for the gospel, have a sound understanding of good governance and are familiar with the charity sector. The right candidates will be at ease networking, have strong connections and be able to work collaboratively to achieve a common goal. We are keen to hear from people who specifically have experience in one or more of the following: mission, overseas development, human resources and law.

If you are interested in exploring this exciting opportunity to become a WorldShare trustee and participate in the church's outreach to the world; please contact Kevin McKemey Chair of Trustees and/or Alan Butler CEO, for an informal conversation and we'll take it from there.

To learn more about WorldShare and its work, please visit our website www.worldshare.org.uk.

We are looking for a highly organised team player who can provide legal advice and implementation of appropriate agreements, policies and procedures primarily in the areas of data protection, digital and media. This dynamic and vital role presents an excellent opportunity for a candidate with experience as a fully qualified lawyer authorised to practice in England who is keen to use their legal expertise in this fast-paced and global ministry environment.

At Alpha International we believe that everyone should have the chance to explore the Christian faith, ask questions and share their point of view, wherever they are in the world, for free. We exist to equip and serve the church in its mission to help people to discover and develop a relationship with Jesus. We also have responsibility for an increasing amount of content that currently includes The Marriage Course, The Pre-Marriage Course, and Bible in One Year, as well as the annual Leadership Conference event. As a Christian organisation our faith is an integral part of our working culture.

By joining and supporting Alpha International's Global General Counsel, to whom the successful candidate would report, you will be doubling the key professional advisory capacity of the AI Global Legal team, which partners with the HTB Group Legal team that also serves other HTB Group charitable entities. With an increase in Alpha International's global activities, especially within the areas of data, digital and media, we are looking to appoint a candidate who is able to provide specialist advice and implementation in these areas, although there will be opportunity to participate in broader commercial matters including provision of important support in strategic ones to continue to further the ministry on a sound legal basis.

For more information about the role, please look at the job specification at Legal Counsel.

Trustees Required!

We are looking for a trustee to join the board (currently 8 trustees). Above all, we are looking for passionate and caring individuals who will share our commitment to delivering Martha's exciting plan to expand its reach and impact, but are specifically seeking candidates who will bring us extensive experience and understanding of either legal or entrepreneurial business or either clinical or experience of working with people with learning disabilities.

Martha Trust

Martha Trust provides lifelong residential and respite care for people with profound physical and multiple learning disabilities at three homes in Kent and East Sussex. A Christian ethos underpins our work and we do everything we can to make our service users feel valued and to help them enjoy as full and normal a life as possible. We provided expert, compassionate care to around 40 residents and their families. We employ nearly 200 staff, assisted by a large number of volunteers.

The Board of Trustees are the directors of the charity, setting its overall strategy and overseeing its operations. Being a Trustee is a challenging but extremely fulfilling role and requires the attendance at four board meetings per year.

These are voluntary roles, although travel expenses will be reimbursed.

For further information on Martha Trust please visit www.marthatrust.org.uk or call George White CEO on 01304 615223

The role of Trustee carries an Occupational Requirement for the person to be a practising Christian.
