Overview

The Lawyers' Christian Fellowship exists to bring the whole good news of Jesus Christ within and through the legal world. Among students and young lawyers, the LCF seeks to promote the Christian faith by encouraging and equipping them for a lifetime of sharing, living out, applying and promoting the Christian Faith in and through law.

Purpose of the role

At the LCF, we are passionate about the sufficiency and power of God's Word to transform life. In every area of our ministry, our endeavour is to proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ to those who don't yet know Him, and to equip Christians in law to become mature disciples who can disciple others, particularly in the legal profession. We have therefore developed an exciting Ministry Trainee programme to equip Christians to understand and handle God's Word, and to use it practically in the legal profession and in their local church.

The LCF Ministry Trainee programme is designed to complement voluntary work in a local evangelical church and Bible training with an LCF-approved provider such as Cornhill. In the initial 12 month period, Trainees will spend three days per week working with the LCF, gaining practical ministry experience as they work with law students and young lawyers in the Region, and will receive guidance and feedback as they do this. With the support of a local church (a church recommended by or agreed with the LCF) trainees will independently undertake a one-year Ministry Training Course and be involved in a specific area of church-based ministry.

The LCF has, through its membership and associated organisations, committed relationships with experienced lawyers in a variety of specialist practice areas. As part of the Trainee's training and development programme, the LCF will seek to identify and arrange a variety of work experience for the trainee in line with their areas of interest and skills.

At the end of the 12-month training period, we believe that our trainees will be uniquely equipped and experienced, to grow and serve as Christians in law and in their local church. Subject to funds and suitability, there will be the option of working with the LCF for two days per week for an additional 1–2 years alongside independent study to complete professional or other post-graduate legal qualifications. During the second and third year of a training programme with the LCF, and as part of the Trainee’s ongoing training and development programme, we would agree the content of additional Bible and ministry training, and legal work experience.

Accommodation, Financial and other support

During the initial 12-month training period you will be employed by the LCF to work 19.5 hours per week (typically 3 x 6.5 hour days per week). The LCF will not be responsible for the cost of the Trainee’s Bible training or accommodation, but will seek to reach a partnership agreement with the Trainee’s supporting church in relation to prayer, pastoral and practical support, including support or a contribution towards training costs, and accommodation.

Roles and responsibilities:

1. Training

The post holder will:

- 1.1 Participate in LCF staff team meetings and training;
