

Living in the age of Elisha:

A radically Christian perspective for today's lawyers

National Conference and AGM
The Hayes, Swanwick, Derbyshire
8-10 November 2019

LCF National Conference and AGM 2019

The Hayes, Friday 8 to Sunday 10 November

The book of 1 and 2 Kings is one of the lesser known parts of the Bible, but contains one of the most gripping and pertinent narratives for Christian lawyers in our present secular age.

At a time of national spiritual decline, the prophets Elijah and Elisha bravely confronted those in power, and urged people to turn to God before his promised judgment would fall. Elisha did more spectacular miracles than anyone in history besides Jesus, and in many ways his life prefigures the greater Saviour who came after him. He has much to teach us about inclusivity (rightly understood), about the power of God's word, about the importance of knowing the times.

We would love you and your families to join us as we consider what it means to live in the age of Elisha.

Main Speaker

Rev Dr Andrew Sach has a background in science that began with an explosives factory in his parents garage aged 15 and ended with a PhD on why two ears are better than one. He now works as a pastor at Grace Church Greenwich and helps to train other pastors on the Cornhill Training Course. He is often invited to speak at schools and universities (and once on the BBC) on the subject of science and faith. He is co-author of several books with decreasingly imaginative titles: Dig Deeper (2005), Dig Even Deeper (2010) and Dig Deeper into the Gospels (2015). He enjoys playing Bach on the piano and attempting to pour nice shapes in his coffee with frothed milk.
